Mission: To promote the Bible as the Divine Word of God, given for redemption and salvation, which encompasses preaching, teaching and caring for the physical, spiritual, social and emotional needs of mankind—regardless of race, color, creed, age or nationality

Our Values: We:

- recognize and affirm the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion;
- practice supporting the church through tithes and offerings;
- treat all persons, believers and non-believers, with dignity and respect;
- open the doors of our church for the spiritual, physical and intellectual needs of all people;
- acknowledge marriage as a life-long relationship ordained by God between a man and a woman;
- are biblical, liturgical, and evangelical.

Location: New Israel Reformed Episcopal Church traces its origin back to the latter quarter of the 19th century when it was a small mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church known as Racker’s Mission, which was located on a farm outside the city limits of Charleston. Consequently, the church is situated within walking distance of such sites as The Citadel, Hampton Park and the African American Museum, to name a few.

Worship: New Israel REC is a parish of the Diocese of the Southeast of the Reformed Episcopal Church—an evangelical parish in the Anglican tradition—and worships in accordance
